

GO-GIRL

Gaining Options: Girls Investigate Real Life

Our Mission is to increase the competence and confidence of adolescent girls in the areas of problem solving and scientific thinking, by engaging them in experiences that promote an interest in and build a capacity to pursue careers related to STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics).

Apply Now for Winter 2018

Who:

Girls currently in 7th Grade!

What:

A program designed to promote gender equality in STEM fields

Where:

Wayne State University
College of Education

When:

Eight Saturdays
beginning February 10, 2018
(Ending April 21, 2018)

See our website for exact dates

About Winter 2018:

- Explore STEM careers with WSU faculty & undergraduate mentors!
 - Learn HTML
- Work in teams to create a mobile app!
- Participate in STEM lab activities
- Learn how to use library and online research tools.
- Gain academic self-confidence!

Apply online at gogirls.wayne.edu

Applications due by December 2, 2017

For more info email us at gogirl@wayne.edu

GO-GIRL is a 501c3 organization at Wayne State University. The program is offered at no cost to participants. Funding is provided by sponsors, agencies, and private donors. To support GO-GIRL go to gogirls.wayne.edu to make a gift today.